

CAROL ENNEKING

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING

Carol stands out among speakers

because she relates with audiences through her vulnerability, real world examples, and personal anecdotes.

Laurie Kosek, VP-HR turned entrepreneur who successfully orchestrated her own Rebalancing Act™

Great event! Just what I needed to hear right now.

Thanks for sharing your critical insights!

Shawn Yates, Engineering & Technology Manager, Baker Hughes

Carol is a powerful and impactful speaker. Her ability to share personal stories while also giving an audience tangible takeaways to improve their lives at work and home comes from decades of personal experience, challenges, and victories.

Tricia Brouk, Award winning director, author, producer and Founder of The Big Talk Academy

BIO

Carol Enneking's unique blend of wit, wisdom, practicality, and creativity inspires people to focus on success that matters so they can lead a life worthy of an enduring legacy. She addresses a range of topics ranging from managing workplace issues to balancing priorities and leading a fulfilling life. Audiences identify with Carol's depiction of the challenges they face showing up effectively in many different roles.

Carol's experience spans major corporations, entrepreneurial ventures, and collaborations with over 100 companies. Most recently, she served as VP of Talent Management, Learning, and Diversity for a $6B international manufacturing company, before embarking on her own Rebalancing Act™ to focus on writing and speaking full-time.

Life lessons learned on her elusive quest to do, be, and have it all inspired Carol to write the best-selling book, The Rebalancing Act: Wisdom from Working Women for Success that Matters.

SPEAKING TOPICS

The Rebalancing Act

In this highly interactive, inspirational talk, Carol shares how to rethink the power dynamic of balance, which is critical to fulfillment. The audience will learn how to choose what matters, let go of the rest, and will leave with practical tools to help them create the life and lasting legacy they desire.

Unlocking Career Fulfillment

In this powerful keynote, the audience will discover how to bring more of their unique talents to the forefront while making a positive impact. Carol will encourage employees to take an active role managing their career development by clarifying their values, interests and long-term career goals instead of simply focusing on their day-to-day tasks.

The Art of Executive Presence

In this thought provoking talk, Carol helps the audience discover how to show up authentically and effectively in high-stakes situations. She will share the one leadership concept that completely transformed her executive presence. Through interactive activities, the audience gain firsthand experience demonstrating its impact and will leave with ideas on how to apply this concept in their daily lives.

AS SEEN IN

BOOK CAROL TO SPEAK

info@carolenneking.com

CONNECT

